We are thrilled you are joining us for the online Bible study, Legacy of Faith. When you think about leaving a legacy of faith for your children – what comes to mind? Will it be one that points them to the heart of God or one that leaves them indifferent about the truth of Scripture? As a mother, it's a question we must ask ourselves. Over the next 5 weeks, we'll look at keys to effectively leaving a legacy of faith for the next generation, along with practical application for our busy lives. This week is an introductory week. If you're in a Thrive group, take this opportunity to get to know your group members before we dive in next week. Here are a couple of questions to get you thinking as you prepare for the first session.

1. What comes to mind when you think about leaving a legacy of faith?
2. Did your parents or grandparents live faith-filled lives? In what way did that influence you?
3. What do you hope to gain from this study?
4. What are some things you have already passed on to your children? What do you want to pass on in the future?

5. For a preview of our study, read the following scripture passages.

Exodus 2:1-10

Hebrews 11:23-27

6. Write any questions you have as you begin this study.

Lord, my heart's desire is to leave a legacy of faith for my children that points them to You. As I begin this study, I ask you to teach me practical ways to make this a reality in my home. Help me to have the discipline to complete this commitment, and the boldness to live it out. Amen.
